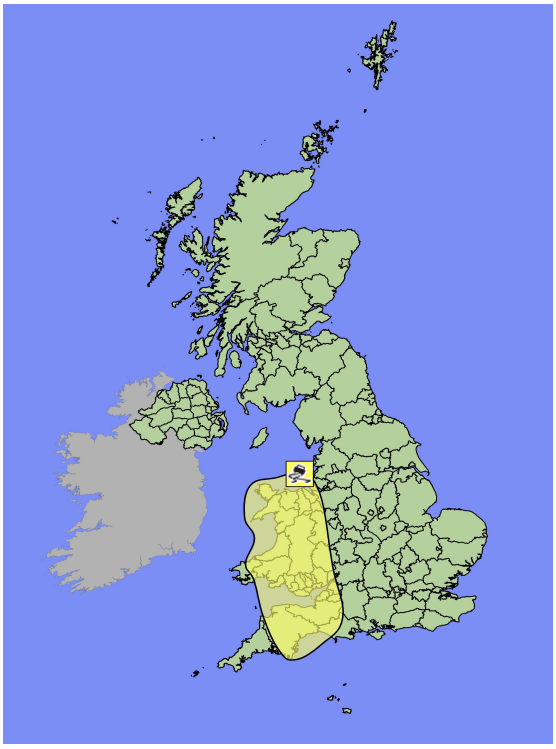
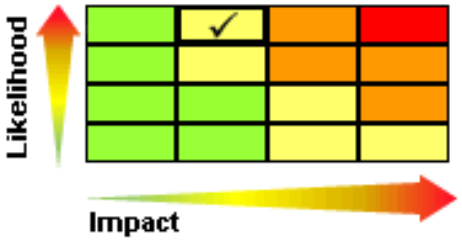
National Severe Weather Warning Service





Chief Forecasters Assessment
After a cold night with a widespread frost frontal systems are now beginning to push in from the Atlantic. These will bring occasional outbreaks of rain, sleet and snow this morning which will freeze on untreated surfaces to form icy stretches.

The Met Office have issued a Yellow Warning of Ice

Valid from 08:30 on Sat, 04th Feb 2012 until 12:00 on Sat, 04th Feb 2012

Outbreaks of rain, sleet and snow will fall onto subzero surfaces in places this morning leading to icy stretches forming on untreated surfaces. The public should take extra care and are advised that this is likely to lead to some travel disruption.
